Waiwera Hot Pools

Massive Discount for Massey Students!

Our Advocacy Coordinator has arranged a huge 50% discount on the already discounted student discount price. This is a great way to decompress from the stress of upcoming exams and assignments. Look after yourselves in this healthy, natural and relaxing environment. There are also water-slides for those of you that find a bit of adrenaline and a scream or two are the best way to get rid of the bad assignment grade blues.

You can enjoy all of this for only $10! (Available MON – FRI) To take a look at Waiwera's website, click here

ASA Ball 2015

August 20th. Save the date!

It's getting close to the time of the year where everyone gets excited for...

The ASA BALL!!!!

Last year's event sold out so don't miss out on this experience we're sure you'll never forget.

To keep updated with new information and ticket release dates, like our Facebook page and update yourself with our website.

Club Grants New Policy

You can now apply for at least 70% of costs!

Once affiliated, your club has the opportunity to apply to the Club Grant Committee for money to assist your club in areas including, events, equipment, fees, travel and accommodation.

The next cut-off date is May 24th. Which also means, this is your last chance to apply for financial assistance for semester two clubs' day.

Our Mission

"To foster and further, as widely as possible, the educational, cultural, social and sporting life of the members of the Association, the University, and the community at large."

Who Are We?

We are a not-for-profit incorporated society owned and managed by the students enrolled at Massey University's Albany Campus since 1998. Our three main areas are provision of student-related Advocacy, Representation and Services.

We are your student voice.
